ORAL JUDGEMENT

Learned Advocate Mr. T.R. Mishra appearing for the petitioners submits that the respondents, since filing of the petition, have already appointed all except one. He submits that the respondents have, through oversight, not given the same treatment to one of the petitioners. It is provided that the said left out petitioner shall make a representation to the respondents for being given treatment similar to other petitioners. In case his case is found on all points identical to other petitioners, the respondents shall examine his case and it is expected that he will also be given the same treatment. With these observations and directions, the petition is disposed of. Rule is discharged with no order as to costs.
